B Zipper Bracelets - Joyce Weeks 1h | $20

This one hour workshop will explore using zippers and zipper parts in making jewelry. In particular we will focus on making colorful layered bracelets. Each participant will leave with a bracelet that they made along with useful handouts.

Joyce Weeks combines the beauty of nature, inspired by her life in the Berkshire Mountains to create one of a kind pieces of artisan jewelry. Her designs include pressed flowers, zippers, vintage Lucite and buttons and semi precious bead necklaces along with jewelry for your hair. southfielddesigns.com

C A Moment with Clay - Washington Ledesma 2.5h | $45

We will explore how ideas are translated into beautiful 3-dimensional objects, where space inside the object is as important as the space outside of it. Bring your questions to explore regarding techniques and uses of clay and kilns. Washington will also show some of the unique pieces which he creates to call us to our need to preserve the animals and the environment on our own planet.

Washington Ledesma, a successful artist in Uruguay, resettled in the USA where he became known for his unusual methods of decorating clay and his jubilant use of color. Now with a studio & gallery on Martha's Vineyard, he has taught at the Truro Center for the Arts and at the Featherstone Center for the Arts and was a Fellow at the Radcliffe Ceramics Studios in Cambridge. washington-ledesma.com

D Cuff It! - Shauna Burke 4.5h with Lunch break | $95

Create a unique cuff bracelet while being introduced to the basic fundamentals of silver jewelry making. Learn how to saw, file, create texture and form metal - and finish up the day with a couple of unique, textured cuff bracelets in copper and sterling silver.

Shauna Blythe Burke is an artist and art teacher. She has lived and taught in New York and Florence, Italy. Her jewelry is inspired by the classic teachings of her time in Italy and by the urban environment she now calls her home in Brooklyn.

E Inkwash Painting - Nathan Carroll 2h | $30

This 2-hour workshop will be a hands-on look at black and white inkwash techniques. After some time to experiment with guided instruction, large papers will be provided to create a more singular vision that utilizes some of the techniques covered. Working with ink can be explosive and liberating, as well as delicate and precise at times.

Nathan Carroll is an artist and teacher based in Central Pennsylvania. His work is often playful and impressionistic. elevenelevestudio.us

F Mask Sculptures - Leslie Klein 2h | $40

In this 2-hour workshop participants will learn to construct a clay mask that expresses their individual artistry. Bring your imagination!

Leslie Klein is a clay artist and sculptor, whose work has been shown in juried exhibitions as well as commissioned and collected by organizations and private clients. lesliekleinstudio.com

G Ribbon Flowers & Fabric Flowers - Nina Ziv 4.5h with Lunch break | $60

The workshop will focus on the creation of flowers made out of ribbon and fabric. They can be used to embellish a wide variety of garments including coats, jackets and handbags.

Nina Ziv is a fashion designer and owner of Neena Zeve Designs. Based in Park Slope Brooklyn her products are made with haute couture techniques.
