Welcome, to our 20th annual Berkshires Arts Festival.

First, we have to thank all of our artists who had to jump through many hoops to be here this year. Then, of course, our Governor for lifting the restrictions allowing us to hold our show this weekend.

Above and beyond everything else, we thank you, our guests, for showing up.

These past 20 years have been wonderful. Every year we meet our friends who have been our guests, in many cases, since the very beginning.

This year we have some awesome surprises.

Michael Indorato, The Flying Artist, is seriously “airborne” as he takes his paintings to new heights outside of the Upper Lodge.

Michael Lieberman, a gifted Jazz musician with an unusual background, is making a first appearance at our festival.

And finally, for the kids, Bruce Bowie the Magical Ventriloquist from Pittsfield, will make his debut on Friday & Saturday.

All and all, we hope to share a beautiful weekend of art, music, and fun for everyone!

PAPER COLLAGE ON CANVAS

Pollinators, 72"x48"l

Laura Adams
at
An American Craftsman, Lenox, MA.
July 31 to September 10, 2021

Pollinators, detail

An avid bird watcher and hiker for many years, Laura Adams is inspired by the collages of Matisse, the watercolors of Audubon, the colorful mosaics and paintings of Klimt and the sense of self and purpose of O'Keeffe.

Her artistic process is unique, using only paper and a clear acrylic glue to create her work. She does not use paint.

Many layers of paper, sometimes 15-20 are used to achieve the effects. The finished work has a bas-relief and a texture that is not evident from printed images.

The papers come from around the world. Many are mulberry based from India, China, Japan, and Nepal. Her favorite papers are the beautiful Japanese washi papers that are used for origami. But also colorful bookbinding papers from Italy and textured fibrous papers from Mexico.

It has taken her over 20 years to master this process.

An American Craftsman

LENOX • GREAT BARRINGTON

After almost 40 years in Manhattan, An American Craftsman Galleries had become an international destination for tourists from all over the world.

We closed our Manhattan locations two years ago, and moved into a grand space in our own building in Lenox, MA. You will find us just one mile before Tanglewood next to the firehouse and in Great Barrington at 389 Stockbridge Road.

We are proud to have become a permanent part of the landscape of this extraordinary community, and we look forward to meeting you in the very near future at either of our galleries or at our Berkshires Arts Festival American Craftsman Gallery booth.
